MOTION BY THE UNITED STATES
TO FILE OVER-LENGTH BRIEF

The Court's order of December 20, 2021 invited the United States to provide its views on six sets of questions posed by the Court concerning the right of action under Title III of the Cuban Liberty And Democratic Solidarity Act Of 1996. Pub. L. No. 104-114, 110 Stat. 785 (codified at 22 U.S.C. § 6021, et seq.). It was unclear from the Court's order whether the Court expected the United States' brief to comply with the word limit typically applicable to amicus briefs. See Fed. R. App. P. 29(a)(5). If so, the United States respectfully requests that the Court permit it to file a brief containing 7,955 words. The 1,455 words in excess of the limit usually applicable to amicus briefs are necessary for the government to provide complete responses to the specific questions posed by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,
