NOTICE CONCERNNG LCvR 5.4(b)(5)

Defendants, through their undersigned attorney, gives Notice as follows:

LCvR 5.4(b)(5) provides that by electronically filing a declaration, certification is made that the original signed document is in the possession of the attorney and that it is available for review upon request by a party or by the Court. However, it is temporarily not possible, because of travel and courier restrictions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, for Defendants' attorneys to obtain the original signed declarations of the following four (4) individuals, which are being filed electronically in support of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Action with Prejudice, and for Other Relief. All of these declarants are located in Cuba: Roberto Suárez Sotolongo, Mali Suris Valmaña, Dra. Marta Milagro Moreno Cruz and Ofelia Perera Ibañez. Because of travel restrictions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, no one from my law firm can retrieve these declarations from Cuba, nor can someone from Cuba bring them to the law firm. The only international courier that provides service between the United States and Cuba, DHL, has suspended service from Cuba because of the COVID-19 pandemic. My firm will obtain the original of the above-mentioned declarations and keep them in its possession as soon as possible.

Dated: June 16, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael Krinsky
